About the Show

Harrison Greenbaum: What Just Happened? features the "hardest-working man in comedy" (Time Out New York) and the first-ever comedian or comedy magician to headline a Cirque du Soleil show combining his unique brand of stand-up with original and award-winning magic.

The culmination of over a decade and a half of developing, writing, and performing, the show debuted at the Upright Citizens Brigade Theatre in New York in 2010, where it was a sold-out smash and the venue's first-ever magic show.

Since then, the show has made a splash in New York, including a two-month run at the Elektra Theater in Times Square and a current Off-Broadway run at Asylum NYC, and has toured domestically and internationally, featured at venues such as the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., the Magic Castle in Hollywood, California, and the Sydney Opera House. The show was the first and only magic show to be featured at the legendary Comedy Cellar in New York, as well as the first-ever magic show to be featured at the National Comedy Center in Jamestown, New York, and the first and only magic show to ever be presented by the National Lampoon.

In addition to being a New York Times Critic's Pick, Harrison has won several awards for his show, including the Andy Kaufman Award for originality and creativity in comedy, the Senator Crandall Award for originality and creativity in magic, and a Presidential Citation from the International Brotherhood of Magicians. Harrison was also recently made an Associate Member of the Inner Circle of the Magic Circle (A.I.M.C.) with Silver Star, an elite designation given by the President of the Magic Circle for exceptional performance.
